The Disraeli Cabinet on the American Natu ralization Question.
London, July 17, 1868.

In the House of Commons last evening Lord Stan fey, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, made an important statement in answer to a question asking for

A reply he said had already been sent to the United States government on the matter of naturalization the substance of which was that the British Ministry was ready to accept the American view of the ques tion. He, therefore, thought a misunderstanding be tween the two nations impossible.

Lord Stanley also stated that in his reply he had declined to make a treaty at present, as the Royal Commission is still considering the general subject, and for the additional reason that time will not permit the passage of a bill at the present session

Fenian Convicts and Foreign Citizenship.

LONDON, July 17, 1868.

In the House of Commons last night Mr. Mill asked the government what disposition was to be made of nian prisoners Warren and Costello, who were arrested after effecting a landing in Ireland with the alleged purpose of exciting an insurrection, and whether the government intended to mitigate the sentence of those Fenians who had already been tried and convicted.

Lord Mayo replied that there were no peculiar features in the cases of Warren and Castello which would lead the government to depart from the usua course of the law. Some delay, however, had been caused in the proceedings, owing to the necessity of that the accused were closely connected with the Fenian organization in that country. In reply to the second part of Mr. Mill's question Lord Mayo said the time had not yet come for the revision of the cases of those Feman convicts who were now alling out the terms of their sentences.

The Naturalization Despatches Before the People. London, July 17, 1868.

The London Standard, in an article on the subject of naturalization, says before any alteration is made in the English laws much time and the most careful consideration should be given to the question of the rights of naturalized citizens. The Standard regrets the premature 'publication of the despatches which have been exchanged between the British and Ame rican governments on this question.

Serious Riot at Millican-Negres Attempt to Hang a Man and Are, Prevented-A Bloody Fight the Result-The Negroes Finally Dispersed by the Military-Casual ties Between Fifty and Sixty.
GALVESTON, July 17, 1868.

On the evening of the 15th inst. a serious riot commenced at Millican, on the Central Railroad. It appears that a mob of about twenty-five negroes, led by a white school teacher and a negro preache named Brooks, attempted to hang a man named William Halliday; but the white citizens interfered to prevent the execution, and, headed by the to prevent the execution, and, headed by the Sheriff and the agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, attempted to suppress the mob. The result was the death of ten or twelve negroes. On the 16th inst, the numbers increased on both sides and skirmishing occurred during the day, the estimated number of casualties being twenty-live. A small body of troops arrived late last night and dispersed the rioters after killing three negroes. The latter, numbering between three and five hundred persons, had fortified themselves three miles from Millican and refused to lay down their arms until the troops dispersed them. The entire loss was between fifty and sixty persons. The difficulty is said to have arisen from a suspicion that a negro member of the arisen from a suspicion that a negro member of t Loyal heavile had been hanged, but who has sin been found.

Accident to the Steamer Providence-A Leak in the Condensing Apparatus—She Is Beaches and the Injury Repaired.

An accident occurred to the supply pipe of the condensing apparatus of the steamer Providence, of the Bristoi line, causing a bad leak, which induced two o'clock on the passage from New York to Bris tol. The water was pumped from the compartments, the leak stopped and the steamer backed off from the beach, reaching Bristol about eight o'clock. Her hull is uninjured. She had seven hundred passengers on board.

Another of those daring robberies that are so frequent in the crowded thoroughfares of the city occurred at four P. M. yesterday. It appears that John Waterhouse, of No. 82 East Fourth street, was passing at that hour through Fourth street on his way home, when he was assailed and knocked down by an unknown man and robbed of $1,000. On securing the money the robber ran through Second avenue to the corner of Third street, where a butcher's cart was in waiting, into which he jumped and escaped by driving rapidly through Second street towards the East river. The robber was dressed in a linen cost, black pants and black alouched hat. The cart, which contained two accomplices, was painted red and was drawn by a gray horse. Notwithstanding that the police authorities exerted themselves to discover the retreat of the highwayman at a late hour last night no due had been obtained looking to their identity. Mr. Waterhouse was, fortunately, not seriously injured.

A strike occurred at St. Louis Thursday among the engineers of the passenger trains on the Missouri Pacific Railway in consequence of some additional duties having been imposed upon them. They were dismissed and a new set of hands employed. Some riotous proceedings took place to-day, the old hands attacking the new men, and violent demonstrations were made against the property of the company. The police were called out and quelled the disturbance, however, and everything will probably go on smooth again in a few days. There had been no attempt on the part of the company to reduce the wages of the men, although they claim to be paying them more than any other road running out of St. Louis and for less labor.

SHOCKING DEATH OF AN INSANE MAN.

(From the Bunker Hill (III.) Gazette, July 2.]

On Monday last our community was shocked by the intelligence that our fellow townsman, William H. Carroll, long and favorably known in connection with the Monument House, had departed this life under circumstances of the most harrowing nature. It appears that for some months past the deceased had been extremely depressed in mind, that at times reason was entirely dethroned, his ruling thought being self-destruction. On Friday last his mind gave way to such a degree that it was deemed necessary to have attendants with him the greater portion of the time. On Monday it was decided by friends to remove him to Jacksonville to consult medical authority. To this end Mr. J. T. Pennington took the train with the deceased on that day. Mr. Carroll was to all appearance caim and rational during the trip. All was well when they changed cars at Alton for Jacksonville. Here they entered the car next to the rear with Mr. Paddock, of Alton. When near Whitehall, before either of his companions could have the least intimation of his intentions, the deceased sprung from the rear door. Mr. Pennington jumped after him, but was a step too late. The deceased had thrown himself between the cars and across the rail, and now lay mangied and dying. The train was stopped, and the remains taken to Whitehall. It was found that the whoels had cut the body nearly in two and crushed in the chest. The deceased lived some fifteen or twenty minutes, but never spoke.

Mr. Carroll was fifty-four-years of age, and leaves a widow and three children to mourn his loss. He chancel prosperity of our place. The deceased was a member of our Town Council at the time of his
